REV. D. B. F. RANDOLPH.

REV. D. B. F. RANDOLPH is the pastor of Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church, Richmond Terrace, West New Brighton, which has a capacity of about seven hundred sittings, an exceptionally large and beautiful parsonage, and a membership of about three hundred persons, who are warmly attached to all its interests and contribute generously to its support and to all the benevolent objects of the church at large. Their present pastor is now serving them for the fifth year under the new time limit of the denomination.

Mr. Randolph was born in Newark, N. J., in 1848, attended the grammar and high schools of that city, and was graduated from Pennington Seminary in 1868 and from Drew Theological Seminary, with the degree of Bachelor of Divinity, in 1871. In the latter institution he enjoyed the privilege of sitting under the instruction of Drs. McClintock, Foster, Strong, Buttz and Nadal.

In the spring of 1871, he was received into the Newark annual conference, and, in the order of the church, after four years of conference studies, was ordained elder in 1875.

In the economy of Methodism, Mr. Randolph has been the pastor of several churches, more recently at Hoboken, Perth Amboy, Newark and Hacketts-town.
