

CROWELL M. SEGUINE.

CROWELL M. SEGUINE, founder of Giffords-by-the-Sea, was born at the old homestead near Giffords, March 9th, 1851. He is descended in a direct line from the early Huguenot family of that name that settled on the Island nearly two hundred years ago.

Mr. Seguine has always been a successful and enterprising business man, and more than any other has contributed to the growth of his native place. He is a large land owner and conducts a successful real estate and coal business.

He married in 1886, Josephine, daughter of Charles A. Canavello, of Giffords, by whom he has two children, twin daughters, Louisa and Rosa, aged three years.

Mr. Seguine has always been an active, earnest Republican but never has entered politics as an office seeker, preferring to build up his private business and promote the growth of the village founded by him, and his business interests. He has been always known as an honest upright business man, and he and his family are held in high esteem among a large circle of friends.
