

GEORGE W. STAKE.

GEORGE W. STAKE was born at Stapleton, Staten Island in 1869, and was educated at the German and the public schools, and at the College of the City of New York, New York city. He was graduated from said college with honors in 1887, receiving the degree of A. B. In 1889, he was graduated from the Columbia Law School with the degree of L. L. B., cum laude, and from the Department of Political Science with the degree of A. M. In 1890, he passed examination in the same college and received the degree of Ph. D. He was admitted to the bar in 1891, and is now practicing the profession of law with offices at Stapleton and at 59 Liberty street, New York. Mr. Stake is counsel of the town board of Middletown and Staten Island counsel of the Anglo-American Loan and Savings Association. He is a member of the German Association, Erheiterung, of Stapleton, the Delta Kappa Epsilon Club of 435 5th avenue, New York city, and a member of secret orders. Mr. Stake is unmarried and lives at Stapleton.